Continuing Education Events

Register at www.lib.az.us/eventreg for the following workshops:

- Maricopa County Library Council Continuing Education Committee Library Tours

Thursday, May 5, 2005—Phoenix

Tours are arranged each year by the Continuing Education Committee of the Maricopa County Library Council so that area librarians may make informed referrals to libraries in the Valley. The May tour features Phoenix Public's Burton Barr Central Library.

- This Ain't Your Mama's Library! Creating a New Generation of Library Services for Teens

Friday, May 6, 2005—Phoenix; Two 1/2 day sessions

Filled with practical theory addressing the developmental needs of teens and built on best practices from around the nation, this program will not only show you how to get teens into your library but how to keep them coming back for more.

- Back to the Beach

Tuesday, May 10, 2005—Phoenix

Hear a guest author speak and come away with new book titles to recommend to customers plus genre booklists to share with other library staff members.

- Promoting Your Library's Electronic Resources

Friday, May 20, 2005—Florence

Paula Wilson, PLA columnist and Web/Outreach Services Coordinator for Maricopa County Library District, will show how to promote awareness of databases through electronic methods, promotional materials, & direct mail campaigns.

- OCLC FirstSearch: Elements of Searching and Administration

Friday, May 27, 2005—Bonita

Through presentation, demonstration, group exercises and discussions, this course covers advanced search features and functionality, tips for selecting databases and developing search strategies, and a basic overview of FirstSearch's Administrative module.

- Ready Reference and More on the Internet

Friday, May 27, 2005—Bonita

In this hands-on workshop, participants will use ready-reference sources online and also look at more specific sites that answer basic reference questions.
